DETAILED ACTION

Status of Application

1. Acknowledgement is made of amendment filed 11/10/2005. Upon entering the amendment, the claims 1-7 are canceled and new claims 8-28 are added.
2. The claims 8-28 are pending and presented for the examination.

Election acknowledged

3. Applicants' election of species, pancreatic carcinoma, is acknowledged. The restriction is made without traverse. Therefore, the restriction requirement is deemed to be proper and made FINAL.

Claims 8-9, 14, 18-20 and 25 read on the elected species. All remaining claims not drawn to the elected invention are withdrawn from further consideration as being non-elected.

Claim objection

4. The claims are objected to because of the following informalities: The claims fails to provide full chemical name for "DCC" which has been recited throughout the claims. Although the use of shortened name is permissible in the patent applications, it should be accompanied by full chemical name at once at least, so that there will be no uncertainty or confusion as to what is meant and its use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity. For instance, "DCC" can be understood as "Dextran-Coated Charcoal(US5658914)" or "dicyclohexylcarbodiimide(US5658995)" or "dichlorocyanurate" and so on. Appropriate correction(i.e. Deleted in colon carcinoma(DCC)) is required.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection which is necessitated by amended claims filed 11/10/2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 8-9, 14, 18-20 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kuehne et al(CA1268714, 1990) in view of Kern et al(US 5712097).

The claims are drawn to a method of treating cancer which is characterized by a reduced expression of the DCC protein, comprising administering an aqueous solution comprising a stabilized chlorite solution.

Kuehne et al(CA'714, hereinafter) teaches a stabilized chlorite solution and its use in cancer treatment(e.g. metastatic solid tumors such as primary or metastatic adenocarcinoma, see abstract and page 1, last paragraph of English translated version)

The claims differ in that because they require pancreatic carcinoma.

Kern et al(US'097) teaches that a primary pancreatic carcinoma is adenocarcinoma that is associated with DCC, see example 1 at col. 17.

Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at that time of the invention was made to substitute adenocarcinoma with pancreatic carcinoma and the recitation "the carcinoma characterized in DCC" is inherently possessed.

One would have been motivated to make such substitution, with reasonable expectation of success, because the effectiveness of chlorite solution against pancreatic cancer is well proven by CA'714, and it is always desired to extend the medical utility by substituting the effective therapeutic modality. Since the effectiveness is well proven and clearly suggested by CA'714, such substitution to include pancreatic carcinoma would increase industrial applicability and maximize the benefits of drug treatment against cancer therapy.

One would have been motivated to combine these references and make the modification because they are drawn to same technical fields (constituted with same ingredients and share common utilities, and pertinent to the problem which applicant concerns about. MPEP 2141.01(a).

Conclusion

5. No claim is allowed. Having carefully reviewed applicants' Request for Reconsideration, the examiner maintained the rejection in any respect.

1. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

6. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
